IN THE ZOO

One day Danny went with his father to a zoo. He was very excited to see different types of birds and animals.

After a while, they came in front of the cage of a lion. Danny's father told him how ferocious and strong lions are. Danny was listening very attentively.

Finally, he spoke up, "Dad, if somehow the lion comes out of the cage and eats you up, then how will I get back home? At least tell me the route to reach home."

Danny's father laughed at the innocent question of the son.

Let us ring the bicycle bell,
Ting a ling a ling.
Let us ring the school bell,
Ding dong ding.
Let us ring the fire bell,
Clang clang clang.
Let us ring the sleigh bell,
Jingle jingle jang.

Bad Habbits

A teacher found one of her students developing some bad habits. She decided to correct him.

The teacher took the youth for a stroll through a garden. She was talking on the importance of getting rid of bad habits and developing good ones.

Stopping suddenly she asked the boy to pull out a tiny plant growing there. The boy held the plant between his thumb and forefinger and pulled it out.

The teacher asked him to pull out a slightly bigger plant. The boy pulled hard and the plant came out, roots and all. "Now pull out that one," said the teacher pointing to a bush. The boy had to use all his strength to pull it out.

"Now take this one out," said the teacher, indicating a guava tree. The boy grasped the trunk and tried to pull it out. But he couldn't. "It's impossible," said the boy, panting with the effort.

"So it is with bad habits," said the teacher. "When they are young it is easy to pull them out but when they take hold they cannot be uprooted." The boy understood the message and decided to get rid of bad habits.
